Mystery Man Revealed!

June's Mystery Classmate
... with a friend!

So much for trying to fool you guys. All 25 of you who weighed in with guesses this month got it right . . . our very own Pauge Tucker who, apparently, can't fool anybody. So what's he doing in the desert going to Camel Races? Pauge has been an expatriate for many years, teaching marketing to unsuspecting natives from Cyprus to Oman, and going to camel races for fun.

Lew and bride at their "Blessing" ceremony in London

Want to Catch Up?

Shoot Pauge an email in Oman, officially called the Sultanate of Oman, located on the southeast coast of the Arabian Peninsula. Here's Lew (center) and his bride Rosalind at a blessing ceremony ("not a wedding - we did a quickie at Lake Tahoe for that") in the Strand in London. Lookin' good, Lew, with that rental morning suit.

Lew will be on hand in September and can be reached at lewtuck43@yahoo.com

Pre-Reunion Planning Party Held!

To insure that we have covered all of the details of the big CHS '61 50th September Reunion, a number of us gathered recently for a formal dinner.

Linda Ohl, John Storey, Pete Rush
and Ellen Lambert and pals

We tried a variety of the chef's tasty menu items, sampled a few beers and wines, and made some decisions on the dinner menu. We're now pretty sure everyone will be pleased with the food and drink in the Poconos.

After dinner we gathered for some dancing, fun and games. See how many of your classmates you can I.D. in this vintage, circa 1956, shot. Get out the magnifying glass.

Attendance Pushing 100 – Still Time to Sign Up!

As of this date, we have nearly 100 classmates, spouses, partners and friends planning to come. Below is the listing of all attendees who are heading for Pocono Manor on September 18.

Bob Jones

“Jonesy” will be there, bringing his old football, as will several of the lads from our '61 Football Team (Messrs. Jones, Denike, Rush, Hasiak, Murphy, Wittreich, Joralemon, Hall, Carnahan, Walsh) some of whom are pictured here.

The “Fall Court” will be there!

You think it was easy tracking down these ladies? Well, we did, and virtually all of them, including the Queen, Linda Ohl, are coming to the Poconos! We've asked Varsity Club Prez, Bob Jones, if he might escort Linda in and he's, well, “thinking about it!”

“Not signed up yet? I'm Awaitin' On You!”

Jack Walsh will be on hand to greet everyone

There's still time to join the party. Just email Linda Zelle Winterberg Linda@roadrunner.com, to register and call the Pocono Manor Inn for a room. Hotel room reservations must be made directly with the Inn, by calling 800-233-8150.

July Mystery Classmate #4 . . . Can you identify her?!?

Clue . . . Forget the guy and focus on the woman . . . This CHS '61 grad went on to a bigtime government career in D.C. and is shown here announcing the results of Census 2000.

Send your guesses to john@storeyfarm.com.

More CHS Trivia for July: Our crack trivia team (Messrs. Gaetje, Carnahan and Norm Martin, Ms. Corey Boniface, and Ms. Lynn Strandine Pearson) has come up with six more questions for July. Take a shot at these.

1. What very distinctive tradition was part of the CHS graduation procession? How did it start?
2. What was the name of CHS mascot and WHAT was it?
3. What was the name of the bar ("dive") that occupied the spot on Passaic Avenue, just off of Main Street, where the restaurant Charlie's Aunt now stands?
4. What were the two bakeries in town where glazed and jelly donuts could be had for a nickel a piece in the '50s?
5. Name the flat stretch of highway at the border of Chatham where some of us would drag race . . . burnin' rubber!
6. For baseball players . . . What league did you go on to after the "Little League" and what were the three teams in it?

(Answers will appear in the August Newsletter!)

Errors and Omissions: The sharp-eyed Mary Mayshark Stavelly pointed out that there were 3, not 2, dancing schools and that we had, in fact, missed a "teacher of modern dance." The modern dance teacher was Agnes Slagel's daughter Kathy Partlon. Side note: Agnes ran a really great preschool on Fairmount Avenue where Steve Carnahan tasted paste for the first and last time in his life.

See you September 18th at Pocono Manor!*

Remember . . .
You MUST register with the Reunion Committee if you are going to attend any part of the reunion! Your room reservation at Pocono Manor will include breakfasts and dinners, but your registration fee goes toward reunion expenses such as mailings, bartenders, and the Reunion book. If you are planning to attend just the Monday night banquet, you need to pay $50 per person for that with your registration, which is $30 per classmate, and $10 per spouse/guest.

June Trivia Questions Answered

A lot of good guesses came in, so here are the correct answers. Thanks to the CHS '61 Trivia Team for their agile brains and great recall.

1. Which faculty member is remembered by this exclamation: "Thunder in the winter!"

Answer: Richard Lynch

2. For those of us who took Latin, we all remember Mr. Lynch from high school but who taught us our first Latin course in Jr. High?

Answer: Bernard Freeman (his favorite quip... "Ketchup, ketchup in the bottle, first not any, then a lottle"). Guys got paid for this!???

3. A lot of us had Alba Quaresimo for Spanish, but under what other last name did she previously teach us? Clue – brother played pro football for the NY Giants!

Answer: Alba DeRogatis — brother was Al

4. Name at least 4 members of our class that came from foreign countries.

Answer: 1) John Ahn, Korea, 2) Karin Ansoerge, Germany, 3) Nanette Dimino, Colombia, 4) Sigrid Lauscher, Austria 5) Angela Mankiewicz, Germany 6) Christine Jenkins, Trinidad

5. Name a classmate whose father ran a Real Estate business in Chatham.

Answer: Katherine Bystrak or Lois McKelvey

6. Name two classmates who taught at the University level.

Answer: John Ahn, John Brooks, Gene Lyons, David H. Firmege, Steven K. Paulson, Linda Miller, and Webb Miller.

7. What 3 girls, with the same first name, ran on the same ballot for class secretary?

Answer: Lynn Merriken, Ryerson and Strandine

Golfers . . .

Jane Brauer Ruerup has been in touch with the Golf Club and has Tee-Times for 20 players, Monday morning, starting at 9:04 am on the East Course. Please let Jane know of your interest in playing, by August 19th latest, and she'll make arrangements for a fun morning of golf. The cost to play 18 holes with a cart will be $40.00 per person. Email Jane at janbogolf@gmail.com

Check out the Golf Corner on the Pocano Manor Inn website. www.pocanomanorinn.com. The East Course is a century old and has hosted Sam Snead, Arnie Palmer and the Advance CHS Team, including Messrs. Gaetje, Heater, Norm Martin, Lillard, Craig, Tower and Hatch.

Walkers/Hikers . . .

Outdoorsman Dick Wertz has offered to lead a hike. Contact Dick at rawertz@commspeed.net.

Class of '61 50th Reunion Book is Going to Make It!

Martha & John Storey, editors

Your hard working book and newsletter editors are putting up with constant badgering from Steve "Blades" Carnahan, Norm "the Sleuth" Martin, and are besieged by emails from Jack Walsh. But we'll make it!
